

GRACE COVENANT BROADCASTER

Week of March 6, 2017

A Message from the Pastor

I have received some very positive comments about the change in our Sunday morning order of service—same elements with a slightly different arrangement. It is good to open in silence and solitude before our great God and Savior! However, remember that preparation for worship does not begin in those few moments on Sunday morning, but ought to be nurtured throughout the week as you read and meditate on the passages to be taught and proclaimed on Sunday, and as you pray for your mind and heart and for those who will be bringing the Word each week. Mike will be addressing this and other things related to the sermon and worship in our Sunday School in April. I am looking forward to his teaching on such a vital topic.

Registration is now open for the National Founders Conference in Memphis Oct. 3-5. Keynote speakers on the theme “Reformation Truth: Now & Forever” are Ray Ortlund, Jr. and Geoff Thomas. The entire schedule is on the bulletin board at church or available from me by request. It will be three days full of proclamation on the truths that launched the Reformation. Register @ www.founders.org.

By His grace and for His glory,

Pastor Todd
